Lord Badge, 10 to 1, Takes Corona Stakes Dekaber Trims Doily Spanker Pasadena Picks Up Top Weight with Success-Four Favorites Lose.

The feature of the racing at Jamaica track yesterday was a sensational finish in the fifth event for maiden two-year-olds, five furlongs, in which Newton Bennington's Gold Badge, 11 to 5, second choice, defeated Wilson's Jr.'s, Gallavant, 8 to 5 favorite. by a nostril. This pair drew away from the others as they raced around the far turn, and ethers as they raced around the far turn, and when the stretch was reached Gallavant had the lead. But O'Neill, who clung to the rail with Gold Badge, used his whip to such an advantage that the colts were practically on even terms a sixteenth of a mile from home.

Then Redfern went to the whip with great vigor and Gallavant once more assumed the leadership, only to have Gold Badge get up with another fine bit of sprinting. It was seesaw all the way home after that, Redfern letting up in the matter of inflicting punishment, twenty-five yards from the wire. while O'Neill with a few more blows of the lash got Gold Badge in front in the last jump. The race was run in 1:01 2-5. S. McNaughton's Dr. Cofley, a 12 to 1 shot, finished third, four lengths away.

Lord Badge, in spite of his victory on waiting orders so well that on the stretch Lord Badge came from far back with a gallant rush, winning in a drive by a half a length from Grenade, the 9 to 5 favorite, who beat lied knikht, 5 to 1, by the same margin. The time was 1:46.

Dolly Spanker, picking up 122 pounds in the handicap, for three-year-olds and upward, one mile and 70 yards, made his first appearance of the year and was a hot favorite at 13 to 10. He looked the winner at the last furlong pole, but weakened when J. Grant Lyman's Dekaber, 10 to 1, who had a pull at the weights, came along and beat him two lengths in 1:46 1-5. Ocean Tide, 11 to 5, was a length and a half back.

Pasadena, after a winter's campaign on the Coast, picked up 123 pounds in the handicap for three-year-olds, five and a half furlongs, led all the way and won rather handily by a length. He was a warm favorite at 8 to 5. Teacress, 5 to 1, got the place by a head from Sparkling Star, with H. B. Dwyer's lota a length back. The time was 1:08 2-5. Phoebus, 3:to 5 favorite, was easily disposed of by J. H. McCormick's Supreme Court, backed down to 7 to 2 in the last race, for maidens, six furlongs. Burns went to the front with the winner at the head of the stretch and the Russell gelding breezed home. Phoebus, under the lash, beat Billy Roche, 7 to 1, two lengths, for the place. The time was 1:15 2-5. Four favorites lost and Frank O'Neill rode three winners. The weather was cold and raw, the track was slow and the attendance about 8,000. The summaries:

TO-DAY'S CARD FOR JAMAICA. Kings County Handleap Is the Chief Attraction.

The Kings County Handicap, for threeyear-olds and over, one mile and a sixteenth, is the chief attraction at Jamaica to-day. Rapid Water has top weight, with Ormonde's Right, St. Valentine, Red Knight and Sinister Right, St. Valentine, Red Knight and Sinister among the entries. The Rosedale Stakes, for two-year-old fillies, four and one half furlongs, is another feature, with Lady Valentine, Ethel Hayman, Andria and others of merit. In the first race, for three-year-olds, six furlongs, The Gadfly, Virgo, Tommy Waddell and Belliserent seem to be the best of a big field. In the second race, for platers, at a mile and 70 yards, King Pepper, Whorler, Uncle Urigh and others are flamed to go. Two-year-old maidens will run in the fifth event, four and a half furlongs, with Eyelyn J. a possible choice over a fair lot. The last race is a handicap for three-year-olds and upward, six furlongs, E. E. Kmathers's Burleigh and Irene Lindsey, and J. H. McCormick's Crown Prince and Monet appearing to be the best. GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK

CAVANAGH MONARCH OF ALL HE SURVEYS.

Fund for Disabled Jockeys to Be Benefited by Betting Ring Tangle-Old Methods of Layers Still in Vogue-Keene Starts Rallot Box, a Half Brother to Tenny.

There was little evidence of friction beween the Mets and John Cavanagh in the betting ring at Jamaica yesterday. Following the arrangement of a compromise between them, Cavanagh remains in full power. Under a new arrangement, however, the books will each pay $1.50 a day to Cavanagh for the "information service," but of this amount one-third will be turned over to the fund for disabled jockeys. Cavanagh still holds the place of "arbitrator" in the way of many betting tangles and will continue of many betting tangles, and will continue to enjoy the confidence of the racing public as well as, all fair minded turfmen. As part of the new arrangement the Adler brothers will go back to their old positions, which they resigned in order to go into an opposition information bureau" in the interest of the Mets. Jack Adler resumed his work as ring yesterday while Al Adler will begin his duties at the scales in the paddock to-day.
Friends of Cavanagh denied yesterday the statement by several bookmakers that Wheelock and Jones put him in his present position eight years ago. "Cavanagh created his position," said his friends. "He origi-nated the business of supplying information to the books and has built it up to a successful system." Some of the more level headed bookmakers are still condemning Wheelock for his peculiar stand in the matter and say that he should not have gone so far to place the Mets in a position to be virtually squelched by the powers that be, for that is the opinion of a majority of turfmen relative to the result of the conference held on Thursday, at which Wheelock, it is said, was made to understand by a member of the Jockey Club that he could not run things with a high hand.

Following the ending of the tangle, from an official point of view, came some mud slinging by one or two individuals who are identified with the bookmaking game, but when their remarks were circulated there was the comment, "Better not turn the searchlight on their own records." As a matter of fact there are some shady persons holding slates in the local betting rings, but as a rule they know enough to kern quiet about the affairs of others.

With the Cavanagh incident closed, it re-mains to be said that the Mets will be watched by the betting public more closely than ever before. The methods employed in the past have been well illustrated so that the public knows what to expect. The second race yes-terday provided a case in point. First Water was a prohibitive favorite. A well known bookmaker, who says he has plently of sportbookmaker, who says he has piently of sporting blood and is known to possess a fat bank roll, put 110 s on his slate against the Bennington colt as the opening price. A well dressed man stepped up to him and said: "I'll bet you, $60! I want to win $10 for Supper money."

"What?" roared the bookmaker, "you want to bet me $60? Why, do you want to rob me of $10?"

"You've got the price up there, haven't you?" exclaimed the wouldbe bettor.

"You've got the price up there, haven't you? exclaimed the wouldbe bettor.
"Not now!" answered the irate chalker as be erased the price with his thumb. "Go away from here and stay away! You've got an awful nerve!"

James R. Keene's bolt Ballot Box, who started in the gecond race, is a half brother to the famous swayback. Tenny. He is the first of the get of the great sprinter Voter to be seen in a race. His dam is Belle of Maywood.

John Pollard, a handicapper and sheetwriter, well known on the turf as "The Student," died yesterday.

Sparkling Star was a money burner in the first race, Leo Mayer dropping a big bet, among others. J. Grant Lyman, whose colors have not been seen often within a year, saw Dekaber carry them to the front in the handicap. Lyman, it is said, did not bet on the mare, who went up in the odds to tens. She was backed to show by many of the handicappers.

After Redfern's ride on Gallavant much

She was backed to show by many of the handrappers.

After Redfern's ride on Gallavant much adverse criticism was leveled at him. Some persons insisted that the former star jockey had developed a lazy streak, while others averred that he was simply careless.

Dolly Spanker carried the fortunes of the public, his good, consistent races of last year still being in mind. For his first time out he ran a great race under the circumstances.

year still being in mind. For his first time out he ran a great race under the circumstances.

Setauket and De Reszke were the previous winners of the Corona Stakes, which Lord Badge captured yesterday. The talent played Grenade to win this event as if it was all over, while Lord Badge was passed up. Billy Oliver was so happy when his old gelding won that he cracked some cold bottles under the grand stand in the way of celebrating.

Tony Aste started a filly in the fifth race named Miss Point, by Jack Point—Siva, the first of this sire's get to race.

Jimmy McCormick, who is racing the former L. V. Bell horses with considerable success these days, enabled his friends to clean up extensively with Supreme Court in the last race. While the crowd was grabbing supposed sure money by playing Phobus at odds on, the McCormick bunch backed Supreme Court from 5 to 1 down to 7 to 2, which was pretty soft, as the race turned out.

It is said that the attorneys of the Brighton Beach track are planning to restrain the Boer War Company from giving performances at the beack during the race meeting there in July. The grounds of the Boers are close to the track, and it is believed that the use of explosives would seriously interfere with the running of the racehorees.

Racing in Chicago this year is doomed, as the State's Attorney has declared that the Illinols gambling laws must be obeyed to the letter. The Worth Jockey Club has abandoned its meeting, which was scheduled to begin to-day, as the opening of the racing season in the Windy City. Some of the horsemen will go to St. Louis, others to Louis-ville, while more will come East.

Yesterday he had a bad turn, and his son, Robert Walden, who was in New York, was sent for, as was also his son-in-law, Fred Mr. Walden was born in Virginia and was 60 years old. He leaves a widow and a married daughter, Mrs. Frederic Littlefield. He leaves also two sons, Robert and William Walden. Littlefield, who was at Pimlico.

R. W. Walden first became identified with the turf as a Jockey, and rode his last race in 1867, when he had the mount on Luther at Jerome Park. After that he branched out as a trainer and soon had charge of George Lorillard's stable. At the death of Mr. Lorillard Walden took hold of John A. Morris's horses, and continued to train for A. H. and D. H. Morris'up to the time of his death. He also had the horses of H. T. Oxnard, together with a number of his own. Among the famous race borses that Walden trained in his time were The Friar, Bowling Brook, Monitor, Ferida, Britannic, Compute and others.

His conqueror was Chick, at once the star of the luncheon hour, but he afterward lost out to F. M. Olyphant, Jr., The Princeton lad who holds the New Jersey State championship.

Travis never drove a better ball from the tee or on his second shots, barring the fourteen, where he sliced, and any weakness he displayed was on the greens. Yet many of his good tries just failed to come off, as when he lipped the hole for a 3 on the sixteenth. and the proper verdict should be that the better man of the moment at putting won out. and he was absolutely brilliant on the short game.

Travis won the third hole in 3, but he did not get another going out. Chick, who was 38 at the turn to Travis's 40, was then 2 up. He increased the lead, being 4 up with 6 to go before Travis won a hole. Finally, when dormie 2, Chick had a 3 through a ten foot put on the 335 yard seventeenth hole, and the match, by 3 and 1, both taking 40 to come home.

There was a four on a side match yester-day at the Eastern Parkway Colf Club, in which the team of members won from the Polytechnic School team by 12 to 0. The HORSE FAIR ATTRACTS.

Penies Whirl Around the Small Ring in the Garden-Texas Steer Barred.

Interest in the Horse Fair at Madison Square Garden becomes more marked each day.
Aside from the opening night the attendance has steadily increased and the marks of approval have been more pronounced. The exhibits by the stockholders are high class, the exhibits by the stockholders are high class, the Mulhall Wild West show seems to interest the public at each performance and the pologames have proved very entertaining. The races have been the least interesting feature, except when the ponies scramble around the ring in lively fashion.

race was called. As in each previous cannot, ittle Miss Mildred Mulhall, driving the spanking pair of ponies, Fable and Fiction, was the feature that earned liberal applause. A sweepstakes for ponies under 14.3 hands, with $100 added, of which $25 to the second horse, opened the racing card.

Spark, the nimble roan who runs around the small ring like a hoop around a barrel, was assigned the pole. Brown Thrush outran Spark before one lap was covered and assumed the lead. Soon Flash also passed the roan, while Lightfoot labored in the rear. Brown Thursh won easily. Spark made a rush at the last turn and finished second by a head. Time, 1:21. The second heat went to Brown Thrush almost from the fall of the fing. Spark ran into second place on the fourth lap and won second money. Time, 1:235.

The second race did not fill. The third race was a relay sweepstakes put on the program at two miles, each rider to change horses at the end of each three laps. The actual distance run was about twelve laps, a little more than a mile. Chico, ridden by Jack Joyce, ran into the lead, but an unruly horse at the first change put Joyce in the rear. The same happened to all the others until Jim Minick finished in front. Time, 4.39.

The game of indoor polo was an even contest between the Durland team and the Cowboys. Little Miss Mulhall was again prominent in the four-in-hand exhibit. She drove Albert De Cernea's team and handled them skilfully.

Baltimore. April 28.—Fernrock in the sixth race proved the surprise at Pimileo to day. Marmion was looked upon by both the bookmakere and the knowing ones as the good thing. The track was, however, too heavy for the gelding and Fernrock, well ridden by O'Brien, won by three quarters of a length.

First Race—Five and a half furlongs—Mrs. Frank Foster, 67 (Henderson), 8 to 5, won; Pat Bulger, 111 (Miles), 15 to 1, second; Fondness, 89 (McDermott), 12 to 1, third. Time, 1:1134. Escobar, Pat Dupphy, Farmer Healy, Bird Forth and Aqua also ran. Dunphy, Farmer Healy, Bird Forth and Aqua also ran.

BILLIARDS.

Willie Hoppe Again Beats Schaefer and Increases His Average. Willie Hoppe gave a better exhibition last night in his match with Jake Schaefer than he did the first night. These two are playing a tourney of 1,200 points 18-inch, 2 shots in balk line billiards at the Knickerbocker Billiard Academy, Brooklyn. For three nights they play 400 points and on the first night Hoppe made 400 while Schaefer made only 203. Last night Hoppe made another 400, but Schaefer did better and when Hoppe went out he had made 327. The grand total now is Hoppe, 800; Schaefer, 530. Hoppe had ended the game on Thursday evening with an unfinished run of 19 and he resumed play last night and easily coaxed 65 more out of the ivories before he missed carom.

Schaefer could only roll up 3, when he missed, and Hoppe added 7 more to his score. Schae was not in good form and could not get the nade 5, while Hoppe added 35 buttons to his string. In his fourth inning Hoppe gave a fine exhibition of delicate skill. With the utmost coolness he played with the lyories and without seeming effort he added carons after carom to his score until he passed the after carom to his score until he passed the hundred mark.

Frequently he was cheered for his play, but he juggled with the cue so fast that all who witnessed the game were too intent watching to waste time cheering. This time he made 108, which proved to be the high run of the evening. Schaefer followed this with 34, and after Hoppe had made 3 Schaefer made 41, and on his next attempt ran 89. This was his high run and the admirers of the veteran were pleased that he showed some of his old time skill. At the end of the seventh inning the score stood, Heppe 267, Schaefer 182. After that the play was very even, Hoppe in the next seven innings making 183 and Schaefer 165.

In his twelfth inning Hoppe ran 45 and then only had four to make to end his night's performance, but he missed on a cushion shot. Schaefer ran 36 and retired, but left the balls safe, and Hoppe missed, making the only duck egg during the evening. Schaefer made 22 and slipped up on a rall shot, and Hoppe ended the game so that he will begin again to-night.

Hoppe's average last night was 28 8-14 and his grand average for the two nights is 24 8-33. Schaefer averaged last night 25 3-13 and his grand average for the two nights is 24 8-33. Valhalla Arrives for Ocean Race.

The Valhalla, the Earl of Crawford's yacht which is to take part in the ocean race, arrived yesterday afternoon. The yacht left Cowes Feb. 23, and has made a cruise in the West Indies, stopping at Las Palmas, San Juan and Key West, and now she will be put in shape for the big race across the At-lantic, which is to start on May 16. The lastic, which is to start on May 16. The Valhalla is a three masted ship rigged yacht and is the largest entered in the race. She is a steel boat of 647.79 act tonnage. She is 239.6 feet between perpendiculars, 37 feet 2 inches beam and 26 feet depth. She was built by Ramage and Ferguson at Leith in 1802 and is fitted with auxiliary engines. For this race she has been thoroughly overhauled and given new standing and running gear, some new spars and new sails, and with strong winds and rough weather she will cut an important figure in the race. The Earl of Crawford will meet the sub-committee in charge of this end of the race shortly and learn the arrangements that have been made to start the yachts and for the finish. The Earl's guests are Messes. North and Walbraham and Dr. Corfleid. The yacht files the 6ag of the Royal Yacht Squadron and carries a crew of sixty-six men.
